As a result of the pandemic, we have had to postpone and make changes to our typical services to ensure the safety and wellbeing of our participants and volunteers. We have adapted our services to provide the following during the pandemic:

- Virtual programs and events to all of our clients and young adults (a database of 1000+ families). These virtual programs have included game nights, movie nights, dance lessons, educational talks, a talent show, a magic show, group discussions, and more.
- Meal and grocery assistance via gift cards for low-income pediatric cancer families struggling to make ends meet financially.
